Delivery of the Curriculum and Pastoral Care

Discovery Educational Trust (DET) and its Schools use personal information, for example:

- Names and addresses;
- Contact details;
- Date of birth;
- Education attainment;
- Emergency contacts;
- Family relationships;
- General case information.

They also use some special category personal information, for example:

- Health information;
- Ethnicity;
- Religion.

This information is provided by parent/carers, the Local Authority and any previous education settings. It is used to deliver DET/its Schools' statutory education duties, and assure the health and wellbeing of their pupils. The legislation and statutory guidance underpinning DET/its Schools' services are:

Each DET School is the Data Controller for this information.

This information may be shared in order to provide DET/Schools' education service. Please note that information is only shared that is required for that particular purpose, and then only the minimum required. DET/its Schools may share information with:

- Central & Local Government;
- Health providers;
- Other education providers;
- Regulatory Bodies, e.g. Ofsted, The Information Commissioner's Office.

This information is held for 25 years from the date of birth of the pupil. When a pupil changes school, this record goes with them and is not retained by the previous school, other than to meet statutory returns.

The DET/School management information system is provided under contract and all DET/School contractors are Data Processors for this information.

No personal information is routinely available outside of the UK. Should a transfer of personal information be necessary, DET/its Schools only do so where it is permitted by law, and where appropriate safeguards are in place.

For information about your rights in relation to this use of your personal information, please see Section 5 of the DET overarching Privacy Notice.
